

NATAS Membership Benefits

Membership Categories

Professional Membership

Professional Membership is offered to those employed in the television or related industries who make specific contributions to the industry, including executives, technicians, writers, directors, photographers, producers, performers, etc. $55/year

Associate Membership

Associate Membership is offered to those interested in and supportive of the advancement of television, but who cannot be classified in the above professional category. $55/year

As a member of the Rocky Mountain Southwest Chapter your benefits include the following items:

- Affiliation with over 400 television professionals throughout Arizona, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming, all of whom are committed to the highest standards of professional excellence.
- Significantly reduced price on entry fees for the annual Emmy awards competition.
- Access to the Emmy Online Job Bank, where you can post a confidential "situation wanted" notice, or browse through job listings from around the country. (www.emmyonline.org).
- Automatic membership in the National NATAS organization.
- Eligibility for health insurance through the National organization (1-888-NATAS88 or click on www.grouphealthsolutions.com), and long-term care (1-866-EMMYLTC or click on www.benefitsdomatter.com)
- Access to the annual John Cannon scholarship for your children and/or grandchildren ($40,000 over four years).
- Emmy Awards Judging - As a television professional, you have the opportunity to see and judge the work of you peers in other chapters.
- Silver Circle and Gold Circle - Only members can nominate television pioneers to be inducted to the Silver Circle or Gold Circle.
- Free Subscription to Television Quarterly - This prestigious journal features interviews, behind-the-scenes looks, reviews and scholarly articles by and about famous names in the television industry.